Leadership and Organizing in Action Workshop

Wednesday May 15, 2019

8:30 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.

Marshall-Lyon County Library, 201 C Street, Marshall, MN

Hosted by Lake Superior QIN with support from Minnesota Department of Health Care Homes and Minnesota Department of Human Services Behavioral Health Home (BHH) services

Leadership & Organizing in Action (LOA) is a community organizing initiative developed by ReThink Health. At this day-long workshop, you will learn how to exercise leadership to understand how to organize and mobilize partners and stakeholders who have an interest in defining a shared vision and action plan to strengthen collaboration to engage others in population health and quality improvement.

Cost: Free. Space is limited.

Audience: Health Care Homes (HCH) providers; Behavioral Health Home (BHH) services providers; community members/stakeholders who are leading change to serve the whole person across primary care, behavioral health, & social services components through integrated care.

Objectives: The workshop will cover the following essential leadership practices that are proven to engage and activate communities for change:

- Develop a compelling call to action
- Identify partners, assets, and power to leverage strengths and develop a relational strategy and tactics
- Foster collective decision making about goals and interdependent strategy development
- Create accountability structures and facilitate action - move from talking about issues to taking intentional and measurable action to solve problems.

Lunch: Provided by MDH Health Care Homes and DHS Behavioral health home (BHH) services.
